On September 8, 2005, Rep. Gillespie participated in an anti-bullying forum at Northeastern Middle School. Pictured are (l to r) Gillespie; Merrill Merman of MerMan Productions; Assistant Principal Ben Ruby; Principal Nick Bosso. As part of the event, Rep. Gillespie shared a story about a girl he went to school with that committed suicide because of teasing and bullying. Rep. Gillespie has helped introduce House Bill 178 that would establish policies on harassment, bullying and intimidation in schools.

Pennsylvania Megan's Law Website

Keep our communities safe! House Republicans led the way to enhance public safety by making information about registered sex offenders available to the public through the internet. Click here to visit Pennsylvania's new Megan's Law website.
